Forecast For Tayside, Central & Fife
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Wednesday 03 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Showery start on Thursday then mainly dry and bright. Cold.

This Evening and Tonight:
A few clear intervals over western Perthshire at first with a touch of frost. Otherwise a cloudy night with a few showers moving down from the north later, falling as snow on the hills. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Thursday:
A cloudy morning with a few showers. Then a mainly dry afternoon with sunny spells breaking through, and the odd wintry shower in east. A cold northerly breeze. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
It will be mainly dry with bright or sunny spells and overnight frosts. Turning milder but cloudier on Sunday with perhaps a little rain.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.